Designed to serve a content-driven media landscape, Prodigious brings together production expertise in video, digital and print to design, produce and deliver brand content across all channels, using the best talent, workflow processes and tools.

Combining our strategically located Creative Campuses, on-site client studios and time zone-aligned offshore platforms, we build innovative and agile production models that deliver.

ABOUT US

So, What About Latin America?

Based in Costa Rica and Colombia, Prodigious Latin America provides digital production and development services, our business is designed to provide our clients with a reliable, high quality and cost-effective execution platform. Two countries separated by land, but brought together by The Power of One.

Our people are highly talented, creative, innovative and most of all, passionate, performing as a multi-skilled team combining Front End, Back End, Media Operations, QA and Creative qualities. We are driven by a common purpose: to give our client the most seamless production experience. We constantly invest in the professional development of our people to make sure we stay up to date with the digital market trends and demands.

WHAT WE DO

We have organized our services in four verticals:
